

Blackwell Publishing Acquires Lippincott Williams & Wilkins' Veterinary Medicine Book List!

We are delighted to announce that Blackwell Publishing has acquired LWW's veterinary medicine book list, which includes 85 titles covering a wide range of veterinary subjects for the clinical, student and academic markets. The list includes the best-selling Five Minute Veterinary Consult: Canine and Feline, Third Edition by Larry P. Tilley and Francis W. Smith Jr., a quick, authoritative reference offering timely answers to address questions concerning canine and feline health.

Also added to Blackwell's growing booklist are best-selling titles like Adam's Lameness in Horses, Fifth Edition; Functional Anatomy and Physiology of Domestic Animals, Third Edition; Color Atlas of Veterinary Histology, Second Edition; Veterinary Technician's Daily Reference Guide: Canine and Feline; and other titles in the acclaimed Five Minute Veterinary Consult series including Five Minute Veterinary Consult: Equine and Five Minute Veterinary Consult Clinical Companion: Small Animal Dermatology.

We are excited about the future of Blackwell's veterinary program. Our already strong reputation is further strengthened by the addition of these well-known and respected titles, and reflects our commitment to veterinary publishing. It places us as one of the world's foremost publishers in animal biology and medicine. Blackwell's books and journals represent the very best in student learning, academic research and clinical expertise.
